Assumed That Seizure Made for Carrying of Contraband—Ship First Taken to Norwegian Port Flying the German Flag

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23 (AP).—The Maritime Commission received a report today that the American steamship City of Flint had been seized by a German naval vessel. The ship, the report said, was boarded by a German prize crew which took her to Tromsø, Norway. She was said to have entered that port on Saturday flying the German flag.

The City of Flint, which is owned by the Maritime Commission but is operated under charter by the United States Lines, sailed from New York on October 3 with a general cargo for Liverpool and Glasgow.

The commission did not reveal the exact nature of the cargo, but it was assumed that the reason for the seizure was that it was carrying material which the Germans considered contraband.

TAKEN TO SIBERIA

The information received here was to the effect that the City of Flint did not remain at Tromsø, but sailed from that port about 6.30 p.m. on Saturday. The Maritime Commission did not say immediately where the vessel was taken after that, but dispatches from Moscow said she arrived tonight at Kola Bay, north of Murmansk, Siberia, under the German flag and manned by a German crew.

Inquiries will be instituted to ascertain exactly what cargo the City of Flint was carrying.

Officials indicated that if contraband formed 51 per cent or more of the cargo, the German raider was within its rights under international law in taking the ship, provided the City of Flint's operator or captain knew it was contraband.

In case the United States Government finds the contraband was less than half the cargo, it will demand the release of the City of Flint. The demand will be made.

LEADER SPENDS NIGHT IN JAIL

Earl Browder, Head of U.S. Communist Party, Indicted for Fraud

NEW YORK, Oct. 23 (AP).—Earl Browder, national leader of the U.S. Communist party, was indicted today for fraudulently obtaining and using a passport, sat glumly in a Federal cell tonight despite the efforts of a socially prominent matron to obtain his early release.

After he had spent a few hours in custody, Mrs. Hester G. Huntington, a worker in philanthropy, posted $7,500 bail for him—a $5,000 United States Government bond and $2,500 in cash. It was too late, however, to obtain the necessary court order, so Browder had to spend the night in jail.

Mrs. Huntington explained merely: "I never met Mr. Browder personally. I am doing this as a matter of principle."

An indictment containing two counts was returned today by the Federal grand jury investigating a fake passport ring. It charged Browder in obtaining a passport in September, 1934, and in renewing it in February, 1937, lied when he swore he never had a passport before.

The maximum penalty on conviction is a five-year prison sentence and $2,000 fine on each count.

UNLUCKY JUNK ON THE ROCKS

Tai Ping Escapes Pirates And Typhoons to Run Ashore

SEATTLE, Oct. 23 (AP).—The Chinese junk Tai Ping, plagued by pirates, typhoons and near starvation on a trans-Pacific trip in which the crew did not sight land for more than one hundred days, was reported today to have been wrecked on the Northern British Columbia Coast.

The Seattle Post-Intelligencer received a telegram from Ocean Falls, B.C., about one hundred and fifty miles north of where the ill-fated junk was last reported sailing south, in which Captain John Anderson reported the craft wrecked but the crew safe.

The skipper reported the Tai Ping was wrecked on the coast of Prince of Wales Island, and "crew saved; vessel slightly damaged; will salvage and continue to Seattle after repairing at Ocean Falls." Ocean Falls is at the head of Fisher Inlet, 360 miles north of Vancouver on the Mainland coast.

The Tai Ping had been towed out of Quatsino Sound, West Coast of Vancouver Island, about ten days ago for a trip under sail to Seattle, en route to San Francisco.

Leaking Steam Valve Snuffs Out Lives of Infants in Hospital

Four Babies Die in Nursery of New Jersey Institution—Two Others Are Revived—Inspection of Heating Plant Discloses Fault

PERTH AMBOY, N.J., Oct. 23 (AP).—Escaping steam, released from a radiator valve which Acting Police Chief Frank Seiboth said had been repaired with adhesive tape, snuffed out the lives of four infants today in a nursery of Perth Amboy General Hospital. Two others were revived.

Chief Seiboth said Raymond C. Hunt, licensed heating engineer of New Brunswick, reported "the condition of the valve was so bad that the thread had little or no holding power with the threads in the radiator."

SAYS VALVES TAPED

Seiboth quoted Hunt, engaged by Middlesex County Prosecutor Charles Morris to inspect the hospital heating plant, as saying the valve "had

MINISTER TO SPEAK TODAY

German Interest Centres on Danzig Speech of Von Ribbentrop

BERLIN, Oct. 23 (AP).—Germany's interest centred tonight on a foreign policy speech by the Reich Foreign Minister, Joachim von Ribbentrop, is to make in Danzig tomorrow before an organization of war veterans.

Officials would give no hint of what the Foreign Minister would say beyond, declining his speech scheduled for 8:15 p.m. (11:15 a.m. P.S.T.) was "important."

Additional evidence that the Nazis attach significance to his words was seen in the announcement that translations would be furnished foreign newspapers.

A campaign to consolidate the "German front"—where many Germans believe the last war was lost—was launched by the Nazi party as part of the political drive which usually occurs in the winter months.

Munitions and other factory workers were being told at a series of meetings that they stand in the first line with field troops.

A new levy on Jews was imposed by the Finance Ministry to assure raising of the "atonement fine" for the slaying of Ernest von Rath, German Embassy secretary in Paris, last year, by Herschel Grynszpan, a young Polish Jew.

Originally a 20 per cent capital levy was imposed, but today this was increased by 5 per cent retroactively.

DENY ATHENIA CARRIED ARMS

Officials of Dominion Department Issue Statement Concerning Charge

OTTAWA, Oct. 23 (AP).—A statement from the Department of External Affairs today declared "it has now been proven conclusively" that the steamer Athenia carried no guns, ammunition or munitions of war when torpedoed last September 3.

The statement said an investigation had been made following the assertion contained in an affidavit given at Washington by Gustav A. Anderson, a passenger on the Athenia, that the steamer carried guns destined for Canadian Atlantic Coast defence.

BLAZE DESTROYS SUBURBAN HOME

House Owned by F. D. Pemberton On Arbutus Road Is Prey To Flames

Fire of unknown origin last night destroyed the Summer home of F. D. Pemberton, on Flinnery Road, valued at $5,000. Part of the loss was covered by insurance.

The blaze started in a small building on the property. The alarm was received at 9:30 o'clock and Fire Chief Fred Parkinson arrived at the scene to find the house a mass of flames. Approximately 1,600 feet of hose were needed to reach the nearest water, but the house could not be saved. Several outbuildings on the grounds were not harmed.

Mr. Pemberton told the fire chief that on several occasions he had found windows in the house forced open, and that there were no occupants in the house, nor any fire near, he could not say how or where the fire started. A Chinese caretaker occupied a small building on the property.

MERCHANT SHIP WINS IN FIGHT

Cripples Submarine in Exchange of Gunfire—Warship Sinks Enemy

LONDON, Oct. 23 (AP).—Robert Whelan, of Swansea, today added his eye-witness account to that given by the Ministry of Information on Saturday of the dogged fight of a Bristol Channel merchant vessel with a U-boat which ended in the submarine's sinking by a warship summoned to the scene of the encounter.

Whelan, gun crew member of the ship, said a shell fired from the vessel holed the U-boat and damaged its diving apparatus so that it could not submerge. She was an easy prey to the naval vessel which responded to an SOS from the Channel ship, he said.

FIGHT FOR HOUR

When the attack came, Whelan said, "we in the gun crew immediately rushed to our guns and returned the U-boat fire. The fight continued for an hour before we beat off the submarine."

"Two hours later we found that our ship was holed on the waterline, while our starboard lifeboat was full of shrapnel holes, so we had to turn around and head for port. In response to an SOS, warships came and escorted us."

"In the evening the U-boat was sighted again and, not being able to submerge, having been holed by our gun, it was quickly sunk by our escort. Only one of our gun crew was injured, and he only slightly."

Question of President's Attendance at Service Raised When Neutrality Measure Debated—Plan to Shorten Discussion Is Assailed

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23 (AP).—A plan to shorten debate on the Administration bill repealing the United States arms embargo was blocked in the Senate late today after opponents assailed the measure and criticized reading of a prayer for King George VI at church services attended by President Roosevelt.

Both Senators Clark (Democrat, Missouri) and Nye (Republican, North Dakota) deplored the incident Sunday, in which Rev. Frank R. Wilson, pastor of St. James Episcopal Church, Hyde Park, prayed that God grant King George the strength "to vanquish and overcome all his enemies."

Clark was directly critical of the President.

LONDON, Oct. 23 (AP).—Darting far out to sea, Royal Air Force planes sank two German submarines, the Air Ministry announced today. As Britons filled in the lull on the diplomatic and Western fronts with war work and war pastimes, including a certain amount of "grousing," naval authorities reported U-boat warfare on Allied shipping had been intensified.

CONFERENCES START AGAIN

Russia and Finland in Second Series—Vote Not Announced

MOSCOW, Oct. 23 (AP).—Russia and Finland began a second series of negotiations tonight, which observers believed may result in concession of Finnish islands to the Soviet.

Diplomatic circles believed Russia would emerge as the unchallenged master of the Gulf of Finland and the Baltic as the result of the conference, following concessions gained from Latvia, Estonia and Lithuania, but would not win consent for her troops to enter upon Finnish soil.

The delegation, headed by Dr. Juho Paasikivi, was understood to be prepared, with the support of other Scandinavian states, to oppose vigorously any possible Russian move to take over control of the strategic Aaland Islands in the Gulf of Bothnia.

"FREE" PLEBISCITE

The press carefully emphasized the "free" nature of yesterday's plebiscite in the Polish Ukraine and White Russia to determine whether the territory should join the U.S.S.R. Newspaper said among those voting were the Count and Countess Potocki, widely-known Polish nobility of Lwow, and sixty nuns.

Result of the ballot has not been announced. There was only one slate of candidates—those favoring annexation by Russia.

SOFIA, Oct. 23 (AP-Havas).—George Kiossevanoff, head of the Bulgarian Cabinet which resigned last Thursday, formed a new Ministry tonight.

High Winds and Snow Block Highways Around Calgary City

CALGARY, Oct. 23 (AP).—Central Alberta tonight was rapidly becoming snowbound as a forty-mile-an-hour freezing wind out of Calgary was blocked and a blinding snowstorm that trapped motorists on highways and at the foot of steep Calgary Hills.

Thermometers dropped from around 30 above to 15 above at Calgary, 22 above at Lethbridge and 18 above at Red Deer and Edmonton.

Police reported scores of minor traffic accidents, while civic workers scurried to street intersections, subways, sidewalks and hill roads to sprinkle sand in an effort to avoid serious mishaps.

HIGHWAY BLOCKED

Bus and transport officials stated the east highway out of Calgary was blocked and that the Calgary-Edmonton Highway was almost impassable. Many cars and trucks were stalled between Innisfail and Calgary on the Calgary-Edmonton Road, said one trucker.

Though four mechanical graders, seven horse-drawn ploughs and seventy men removed snow from downtown streets all day, snow continued to deepen, covering up smooth slippery ice that proved troublesome to almost every car driver.

Street railway officials reported no serious lay-up early tonight.

His death coincided with the appearance of his newest work, "Western Union," a tale of the development of the United States telegraphic system.

BELIEVES NAZI RULE DOOMED

Lord Marley Claims Population of Germany May Tire of War

TORONTO, Oct. 23 (CP).—Lord Marley, Deputy Speaker of the British House of Lords, declared in an address here tonight his belief that the Nazi regime may cause a revolution in Germany and bring about an end to the war sooner than expected.

On a lecture tour of North America, Lord Marley defended the British action in dropping leaflets instead of bombs.

He said German prisoners taken had been found with the leaflets in their pockets, despite the fact that the German Government thought they were effective enough to impose strict punishment on anyone found reading them.

WHAT TO EXPECT
Lord Marley said, however, a fierce attack by the Nazis on the Maginot line, with possible thrusts through Belgium, Holland or Switzerland, may be expected in the near future.

"Hitler must deliver the goods or go down," he declared. "If he attacks, he will be defeated. Our object is not to win the war, but to prevent Hitler from winning it, so that his regime will fall and a lasting peace may be achieved."

NEUTRALITY DEBATE
During the day, leaders on both sides in the Neutrality Law debate had worked out an arrangement to limit debate for the purpose of hastening a vote. However, it was blocked by the objection of Senator Johnson (Republican, California), who said he wished to call a meeting of those opposed to repealing the embargo before assenting to any restrictions on the length of the discussion.

This meeting, he told the Senate, would be held tomorrow morning. Senator Brown (Democrat, Michigan), introduced an amendment which, he said, would prevent private citizens in the United States to sell goods—other than arms, ammunition and implements of war—to private citizens in Canada without diverting themselves of title to the merchandise.

He told the Senate his amendment was intended to prevent the proposed "cash and carry" system from disrupting normal trade with Canada. There was no danger of shipping to Canada being destroyed, Brown said, and therefore no reason to subject them to the general requirement that Americans divest themselves of title to goods sent to belligerents.

The Michigan senator said a number of senators from his state along the Canadian border favored his proposal, as did several members of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

ing, the cause of which was not disclosed. The Sea Venture sank after an explosion. The crew of twenty-five reached shore safely.

ON WESTERN FRONT
PARIS, Oct. 23 (AP).—German troops were reported tonight to be increasing pressure on the French advance line after five days of almost dead calm on the Western Front.

As the French strengthened their outposts to meet renewed German activity, reinforced patrols of both sides skirmished briskly along the northern flank where the Nazis have been cautiously feeling their way with units as small as three and five men.

The French evening communiqué said there was "marked activity" of contact elements west of the Saar River.

As the Western Front came to life, Premier Daladier announced he had decided to summon Parliament to meet toward the end of November to consider the 1940 budget for another war year.

The emergency powers under which Daladier has been ruling France expire November 30. All decrees enacted by his Government must be approved by Parliament before that date.

A pessimistic note was struck tonight by a retired French general, Maurice Duval, writing in the authoritative Journal des Debats. He summed up the war to date by saying the French were presented with the problem of cracking the Siegfried Line and "simply had to admit our impotence."

The general wrote frankly that "we cannot turn the Siegfried Line unless the Germans, taking the initiative, attack through Holland, Belgium or Switzerland and draw us into action there."

tion, the only route to victory might be a direct offensive against the German fortifications.

Although General Duval claimed the Siegfried Line would have to be cracked, French military authorities have indicated their tactics were aimed at sappling Germany's civilian morale, while avoiding "needless" sacrifice of troops.

They said the only type of action now being waged consisted of a kind of "guerrilla" warfare, involving skirmishes by patrols constantly seeking to chart enemy positions.

France was aided in this type of action by early winter floods. Heavy rains, which sent the Biles River out of its banks and washed out bridges east of Saarbrücken, contributed to the natural strength of positions established by the French troops.

GERMANS ACTIVE
The increased Nazi activities coincided with clearing weather after rains which had sent numerous streams to the flood stage.

The sector just west of Saarbrücken was said to be getting particular attention from the Germans. Apparently they were effecting an advance in the Warndt Forest, the only place where the French still hold any of the German territory occupied at the beginning of the war.

Dispatches also indicated German had penetrated close enough to involve the French main line in a brief engagement near the Luxembourg border.

It was believed in most South-eastern European capitals that Bulgaria's new Government, now being formed, would agree to co-operate with its neighbors under Italian leadership, thus postponing territorial demands on Rumania and Greece. Premier and Foreign Minister George Kinsellianoff was instructed today by King Boris to form a new Cabinet to replace the one which resigned Thursday.

ITALY PROTECTED
Southeastern European diplomats said they had learned Italy was informed, step by step, of French-Balkan negotiations with Turkey which led to the mutual assistance pacts. They said Italy, through the pacts, obtained indirect assurance that Rumania's Black Sea fleet would not appear in the Mediterranean to challenge her interests.

Balkan diplomats said they had been informed that France and Britain had counseled Turkey to make advances to Italy, pointing out the Fascists had a great interest in keeping German or Russian influence from becoming predominant in Southeastern Europe.

The Budapest newspaper, Pungetien Magyarorszag, in an apparently inspired article from Rome said "a Soviet attempt to take Bessarabia from Rumania would be considered in Rome as having 'unhealthy' consequences in the Bal-

Cup and Saucer Shower

Miss Pat Sharp was hostess last evening at her home on Cedar Hill Road, at a cup and saucer shower in honor of Miss Doris Townsend, whose marriage to Mr. Robert Wall will take place this week. Autumn flowers and foliage were used in decorating the reception room. The many gifts were found in a huge cup and saucer cleverly made of amber-marbled paper outside with a delicately tinted lining. This was presented to the bride-to-be with a corsage bouquet of pink carnations and ferns. Games and contests were enjoyed during the evening and a buffet supper was served. Two-toned snapdragons in red and white, in a silver basket, formed the centerpiece for the supper table. The guests were Mesdames G. A. Townsend, P. Sharp, G. Mabon, Townshend, and Misses Doris Townsend, A. Emery, N. B. Shaw, L. Armstrong, C. Emery, Anne Sharp, E. Armstrong and P. Sharp.

The gift of a corsage bouquet of Tallman roses marked the arrival of the recent bride, and the gifts were presented in a gaily decorated "bonbon" in Halloween colors, which was wheeled in by Master Roy Baker. The refreshment table followed the Halloween motif, and bore an interesting centerpiece of seasonal fruits and vegetables. The invited guests were: Mesdames W. Saunders, W. Pitt, R. Gibbs, J. The gifts, arranged on a tea wagon, decorated with masses of brightly-colored nasturtiums, were wheeled in and presented to the bride-to-be. Tea was served, the hostess presiding at the table, assisted by her daughter, Miss Betty Kingsbury. Among those present were Mrs. G. Aikens, Mrs. S. P. Beech, Mrs. Guy Cunningham, Mrs. Stuart Holmes, Mrs. Charles Mackintosh, Mrs. C. H. Popham, Mrs. E. Walter, Mrs. N. W. Wilson, Misses Beddis, A. Royal and H. Purdy.

Furs Are Big Favorites This Season

Furs really have come into their own again this season. They go perfectly with the clothes you'll be wearing, according to the stylists. The full-length ermine coat has a rippled front with skins worked in chevron stripes. A white Cossack ermine hat with a black silk jersey wimple completes the ensemble. The bolero is made of the new ruby-tinted silver fox that is the rage this year. The hat is a puff of the same ruby fox.

Older Woman's Point of View in Clothes

By JOAN GARDNER

Recently when the Grand Duchess Marie presided at a fashion show directed to women at one of New York's leading fashion shops, she prefaced her remarks with a bit of sound advice to the older woman. In the opinion of the Duchess, loses one of her greatest assets when she wears clothes designed for the young woman.

In the opinion of the Grand Duchess Marie, poise, distinction, worldly experience and personality count for a great deal, and the woman who would look her best will take these factors into consideration when she selects her clothes. She will be sure, at least, that the clothes she wears do not minimize these qualities.

The typical wardrobe selected by the Grand Duchess for the mature woman leaned heavily to the conservative side. In daytime dresses, she shows a great preference for boleros, simulated and real. Shoulder capes on coats were introduced as particularly kind to rounded hips, and the three-quarter length cape for daytime and evening, with its military braid trimming, was selected for its comfort and adaptability to all occasions.

(Revised by Fashion Lesson)

"Do not worry about the hourglass silhouette," said the Duchess, "but give constant thought to your waistline. Be sure and wear a foundation suited to your needs and add a measure of bonding and stretching. When you are planning your costume, think about the picture you will make, and not too much about a single piece in your costume. This means careful attention to accessories."

Housecoats were included in the selection of the Grand Duchess, who preferred this inclusion with the statement that the English custom of changing for dinner was a very good one. After a tiring day, it is stimulating and relaxing to change to something comfortable and fresh, she said.

In coats, her choice was for the slightly fitted fur-trimmed coat with shawl collar, or the untrimmed box coat for sports wear. The Grand Duchess, a woman of medium size, is not more than a size 36, and in her own appearance presents the best argument for the rightness of her clothes selections for the older woman.

TODAY'S RECIPE

TREATED NATURALLY

STUFFED Marrow — One six-inch marrow, 1 cup tomato meat, 1/4 cup chopped celery, 1/4 cup chopped onion, 1 cup bread crumbs, 2 cups chopped cold meat, salt, pepper and mustard to taste, buttered crumbs. Method: Split marrow, remove seeds and hollow out, leaving shell about one-third-inch thick. Cut removed vegetable into small cubes and cook until tender, with tomato, celery and onion. Add bread crumbs and meat and season to taste. Place filling in shell which has been cooked gently until tender, but not fully soft. Cover with buttered crumbs and bake about twenty minutes in a hot oven or until shell is well softened.

THE SICK CHILD SHOULD BE TREATED NATURALLY

One of the excuses for a boy or girl of 'teen age who is selfish, rude, ill behaved, lacks courage, or demands his own way, is that he was a weak child or had had many illnesses.

It is only natural that when a youngster is sick, his family, particularly the mother, is likely to be over careful of him. She is continually about him, arranging his pillows, shading the sun or lights, asking him his wants, and in various ways making him feel how important he is to her. It is not wonder then that should he be delicate or attacked by a number of children's ailments, he takes advantage of the mistaken kindness of the household. Even between attacks of illness he expects the same "kind" treatment.

Some very sensible advice is given to parents and others by Elizabeth Cotton, Huntsville, Texas, in Hygiea, the health magazine.

"Even though special care is necessary, a child should be treated as naturally as possible during an illness and particularly when he is out of bed and recovering from the illness."

The surroundings of the child during illness should be such that he does not become unduly nervous and upset. The sick child as well as the sick adult needs to be left alone. He should not be constantly questioned concerning what he wants or how he feels. Neither should he be allowed to get the idea that being ill is a privilege because of the undue attention he receives.

From the physical standpoint, when the child is getting better it is important not to let him damage his heart by being up on his feet too much and too soon. This makes it hard for the parent or nurse because the child has been "quiet" so long he is naturally anxious to get up and play.

"Many children are injured permanently because they are allowed to return to school too soon after an illness. No child should be out of bed following such illness as rheumatic fever, tonsillitis, scarlet fever, diphtheria or whooping cough until his temperature is normal from twenty-four to forty-eight hours."

Treating the sick child naturally, keeping his mind busy as he is recovering, and not letting him get up too soon or do too much when he first gets up, are the lessons we learn from the above advice.

What Today Means

"SCORPIO"

If October 24 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 10:15 a.m. to 12:15 p.m.; from 3:15 to 5:15 p.m., and from 8:15 to 10:15 p.m. The danger periods are from 8:15 to 10:15 a.m., from 6:15 to 8:15 p.m., and from 10:15 p.m. until midnight.

A very slight variation in time may have disconcerting results this day, so it might be well for you to keep track of it. It might be wise to attend to your own business first and do any social chit-chatting afterwards. Respect the property rights of others and take no liberties with them if you would save yourself from trouble. Gossip is apt to be the medium through which truth will be distorted and a great deal of mischief done, so be careful how you let it influence your opinion. There will be many extenuating circumstances back of any seemingly peculiar conduct of people. Therefore do not be too quick in your condemnation. Money may seem to have wings this day, so hold on to yours if you are operating on a budget or have only a limited amount to spare. In business transactions, remember that promises can be forgotten, twisted or their fulfillment delayed. It might be well then, to have promises made, you confirmed in writing. Married and engaged couples, and those exchanging declarations of love, must not expect too much from each other this day, if they wish to avoid being disappointed.

If you are a woman and October 24 is your birthday, your weakness may be that you are inclined to harbor too much resentment. You will find that "forgiveness is better than revenge," and this realization will make you much happier. The conscience of the gambler is apt to be elastic, so be careful before you place confidence in anyone who relies wholly on chance to get results. To adhere strictly to your conception of rectitude may not be an easy or pleasant task at times, but it will be wise to do this. Through tutoring, dress-making or designing, millinery, catering to the public's requirements, fiction writing, news reporting, a specialized line of dramatic activity, singing, selling or the playing of a musical instrument your results may exceed your expectations. Marriage is likely to be the medium through which your most ambitious hopes will be realized.

The child born on October 24, can be taught to develop a fondness for reading and to be discriminating in his selection of books. A good memory, physical fitness and a desire to succeed should help this youngster to become an outstanding member of his community.

If you are a man and October 24 is your natal day, remember: "It is the part of a wise man to keep himself today for tomorrow, and not to venture all his eggs in one basket." Ambitious efforts on your part are most likely to get you the results you hope for if you engage in chemical, historical, scientific or statistical work, journalism, selling, painting, acting or financing.

You Can Make a Big Saving By Dyeing Your Own Hair

It is now so easy, safe, simple and economical to get rid of grey hair that men and women with greying locks need hesitate no longer because of the expense of dyeing the hair and keeping it touched up. The Oriex recipe given below takes out the risk, and enables anyone to get a real professional-looking job at home at a fraction of the expense usually involved.

Here is the money-saving recipe: From your drugstore one-fourth ounce glycerine, one ounce bay rum and one box Oriex Compound. Mix these in a half pint of water, or your drugstore will prepare for you.

at small cost. This gives you a generous size bottle of one of the best grey hair preparations you can use. Simply comb it into the hair several times a week. A rich natural-looking color is soon imparted to grey, streaked, faded hair. Best of all this shade may be maintained for just a few cents a week. Oriex will not wash out or rub off. Being colorless it does not stain the scalp, will not affect permanents. Is not sticky or greasy and leaves the hair soft and glossy. You will be amazed how many years younger you will look and how easily, safely and economically you can eliminate all traces of greying hair. Try the Oriex recipe today. (Adv.)

GARRISON ENTERS TEAM IN SENIOR RUGBY LEAGUE

WORK POINT FIFTEEN TO SEEK HONORS IN BARNARD CUP SERIES

Soldier Entry Brings Senior Division Up to Three Clubs—J.B.A.A. and Oak Bay Wanderers Are Ready for Action—Wally Brynjolfson Is Named Rep Coach, McInnes Manager

Every dark cloud has a silver lining. At least that's what Jack Rutan, young vice-president of the Victoria Rugby Union, believes today. Just when efforts to secure a third team in the senior league appeared to have petered out, Mr. Rutan received a sudden but happy shock at yesterday's meeting of the local union, when the Garrison announced their intention of playing in the Barnard Cup series.

It was good tidings indeed for the small but valiant band of Rugby officials who are struggling to keep the sport alive here. The entry from the soldiers boosted the senior clubs to three, with J.B.A.A. and Oak Bay Wanderers being early entrants. And what's more, there is a possibility of the Navy entering the loop later in the season. While not prepared to file their application at present, it was reported from an authoritative source that a sailor fifteen may soon be seen in action in the local league.

With the Equimait bluejackets not prepared at present for play, plans for the Navy-Army game on Armistice Day, November 11, were cancelled. The date will not be passed up, however, by the Victoria Rugby Union. It was arranged at yesterday's meeting for the Garrison to oppose a picked civilian fifteen at Macdonald Park on that date. Intermediate fifteens will also play at the James Bay enclosure on November 11, with Victoria College opposing Oak Bay Wanderers in the opening game of the Heyland Cup series.

NAMED COACH

Definite steps for the quick organization of Victoria's McKeechie Cup fifteen were taken with the appointment of a coach, team manager and a five-man selection committee.

Wally Brynjolfson, Oak Bay school teacher, who crashed the headlines as a player more than a decade ago, was named coach of the local McKeechie Cup team.

Bob McInnes, veteran manager of the provincial and city championship J.B.A.A. aggregation, returns to the post of manager of the "rep" fifteen. The position is by no means a new one to McInnes, who has long been a familiar figure in British Columbia oval ball circles.

The selection committee is perhaps the youngest ever named by the Victoria Rugby Union. The three members, who with the coach and manager will name the candidates to try out for berths, include Vice-President Jack Rutan, Roddy Gilmartin, two former McKeechie Cup players, and Lieutenant D. Cunningham, of the Garrison. Plans will be made for early workouts at Macdonald Park.

C. E. Lay, chairman of the British Columbia Referees' Board, and head of the local referees' association for the past few seasons, will be asked to continue in his present position. The union expressed every confidence in his work and are looking forward to his acceptance of the post.

Victory will give their first McKeechie Cup game with Vancouver at Brockton Point to be played on Boxing Day, December 26, when they stack up against Varsity Thunderbirds. Vancouver and Varsity open the 1939-40 series at Macdonald on November 11.

Saturday, November 18, was set as the tentative date for the opening of the local Barnard Cup series. Intermediate mediate fifteens will also play on that day. Draws for the games will be made at next Monday's meeting of the union.

Arthur Cox, Victoria representative on the British Columbia Rugby Union, and the only member of the provincial executive who, incidentally, is not in the army, informed the meeting that the B.C.R.U. will hold a parley here on Sunday, November 5. At that time the question of playing a double round in the McKeechie Cup series will be discussed, Mr. Cox intimated.

SINKS HIS TEE SHOT
VANCOUVER, Oct. 23 (CP)—Roger Martin sank an ace in the finals of a hole-in-one golf tournament here over the week-end to capture first prize from a field of 250 finalists.

Among the finalists was Bobby Connolly, who qualified several weeks ago by sinking the first ace in the tourney. He didn't repeat yesterday.

The competition was sponsored by The Vancouver Sun, with proceeds going to charity.

WONDER WHO TOLD HIM?
Tommy was doing penance in the corner. Presently he thought aloud positively: "I can't help it if I'm not perfect," he complained. "I never heard of more than one perfect boy, anyway."

"Who was that?" asked his mother, thinking to point a moral. "Papa," came the reply, "when he was little."

CURED ANYWAY?
"Well, Mr. Joining," said the colored physician to the worried wife. "Ah, has finely knocked de fever out dat husband o' yours."

"Sho' nuff!" she said. "You means he's gone to git well?"
"No!" said the doctor. "Dey haint no hope fo him to git well. But you has de satisfaction o' knowin' dat he died cured."

Reappointed Coach Of 'Rep' Rugger

WALLY BRYNJOLFSON

OAK BAY school teacher, who was yesterday named coach of the Victoria "Rep" rugger for another season. A former player and popular figure in Victoria Rugby circles, Brynjolfson will have the task of getting the local McKeechie Cup fifteen into shape for fixtures with Varsity and Vancouver. Bob McInnes, veteran manager of the J.B.A.A., was appointed to a similar position with the "rep" squad. Long associated with Rugby in this city, McInnes has held many important posts, and his reappointment as boss of the Victoria McKeechie Cup squad will be a popular one. Locals play their first inter-city game on December 9 against Vancouver, at the Mainland, and meet Varsity at Macdonald Park here on Boxing Day, December 26.

Paul Rowe Converts Three Touchdowns As Bronks Triumph

Victoria Football Star Plays Big Role in Calgary's 18-8 Victory Over Edmonton Eskimos—Also Goes Over for a Major Score

CALGARY, Oct. 23 (CP)—Dick Haughian's spirited Calgary Bronks outplayed the fighting Edmonton Eskimos on a wind-swept gridiron and capitalized on the "breaks" to come from behind an eight-point deficit for an 18-8 victory that assured them the third Western Canadian Inter-Provincial Football Union play-off berth. Twelve fumbles, eight by Edmonton, marred the game.

The win put Bronks two points ahead of the fourth-place Eskimos and left them in possession of a fifty-point advantage in the season's scoring column. In the final league battle of the two teams at Edmonton next Saturday the Eskimos must win by a big margin to prevent Calgary from reaching the playoffs.

November 4, in a sudden-death Western Canada semi-final.

Bronks, who in their last three league games blew substantial leads in the dynkin minutes, turned on their power in the second quarter. Captain Larry Haynes and Willie Hughes scored converted touchdowns, and the Edmontonians lost Eddie O'Brien, who suffered concussion and a possible fractured nose.

In the next quarter, Rowe, who converted all three touchdowns, completed the Calgary score by plunging three yards for a touchdown after Coach Bob Fritz's Edmonton midfield fumble. Then Calgary's pass defence clicked for the first time this year and their improved blocking caused most of Edmonton's seven second-half fumbles.

PAUL ROWE STARS
Steve Olander's long punts brought Eskimos into Calgary territory at the start of play. He hoisted a fifty-five-yarder to enable Gordon Gehlhaug to rouse Lyn Warren, and then he added a kick to the deadline point before Rowe, the league's leading scorer, carried the play out of range.

At the start of the second quarter, Rowe's forward pass went to Erik Stevens, of Edmonton. Stevens lateraled to Bill Matheny, who ran thirty-five yards for Edmonton's lone touchdown. Olander converted.

Blaze Bibbing, the ex-Mississippian, quick-kicked to try the visitors. Olander ran after the bouncing punt, but could not trap the ball before Rowe, who was snared, raced downfield to kick the oval toward Haynes. Haynes scooped up the pike and galloped forty yards for Calgary's first touchdown.

Bud Weaver, former University of Saskatchewan star, twirled through Eskimos for thirty-seven yards before Bibbing completed a forward pass for Haynes for Calgary's second touchdown.

Edmonton came back by partially blocking Rowe's punt, but before their attack could get organized, O'Brien was injured on a twenty-yard forward pass play. He collided with his own teammate, Stevens.

Again Eskimos' aerial attack proved a handicap. Fritz fumbled a pass from Vatchem, and Rowe, of Calgary, scooped up the loose ball and carried it twenty yards to Edmonton's twenty-nine. Bronks' second forward pass, Hughes to Bibbing, was good for twenty-six yards, and Rowe went over for the touchdown.

Bronks made eleven first downs compared to six for Edmonton, and gained 215 yards rushing against 121. Eskimos tried eleven forwards, completed four and had three intercepted.

Edmonton—Flying wing, Stevens, halfbacks, Olander, Vatchem and Matheny; quarterback, Fritz; snapback, Howell; insides, Wolf and Ristad; middles, Gehlhaug and Heel; outside, O'Brien and Ronnie; Subb McGreevey, Henderson, Sutton, Hays, Pirzee and Hart.

Calgary—Flying wing, McKinnon, halfbacks, Warren, Jimmy Gilkes and Rowe; quarterback, Hughes; snapback, McKee; insides, Lawrence and Hopwood; middles, Cogrove and Zwaik; outside, Haynes and Hal Harrison; Subb; Bibbing; Wusky; Gobbo Gilkes; Weaver, Bob Harrison, Charles Harrison, Hagen and Bender.

St. Andrews to Play Victoria Saturday In League Fixture

Inter-City Soccer Match Scheduled at Royal Athletic Park—Kick-Off at 3 o'Clock—Rangers Admitted to Local Loop—Two Garrison Cup Games Are Carded Here Sunday

Pacific Coast football returns to the local sports calendar Saturday, with Victoria playing hosts to St. Andrews, of Vancouver, at Royal Athletic Park. The kick-off is set for 3 o'clock, with W. J. Cull blowing the whistle.

Beaten by the flashy North Shore United in their last starts, locals and Saints will be out to regain lost prestige when they meet at the Caledonia Avenue ball lot. Victoria suffered a 7-1 drubbing at the hands of the North Vancouver side, while St. Andrews tasted a 5-1 setback. On the other side of the picture, locals beat St. Savours, 4-2, and gained a 1-1 stalemate with the Radials, present Canadian champions. St. Andrews defeated the Radials, 3-1.

Victoria will be at full strength for their battle with the Mainlanders, and must win to improve their standing in the Pacific Coast League. The players will train twice this week and then await the arrival of the St. Andrews aggregation for Saturday's match.

Visitors will have all of their regulars in uniform, and, according to word from Vancouver, are determined to take the measure of the Victoria team. St. Andrews have not forgotten their last looking at the hands of the locals, and that's another item they want to settle in the coming encounter. Their lineup will be as follows: Horton; Storness and Manzer; Hyslop, Osovsky and Craig; Greig, Weber, Johnstone, Stevenson and Christie. Spare: McLatchey.

LOCAL FRONT
On the local soccer front, delegates of the Victoria and District Football League, at a meeting last night in The Colonial board room, accepted without comment the entry of Rangers, last season's Cayex of the Intermediate Football League. The new entry brings the first division roster to six clubs.

Anxious to keep the players busy, the league decided to play Sunday matches following Saturdays on which Pacific Coast League matches are played here. In previous years the clubs laid off on the days inter-city fixtures were played, and did not see action until the following Saturday.

League play will open on Sunday, October 29, with two matches scheduled. The games will be for the Garrison Cup, symbolic of the league championship, and the first of a league home and home series. The West-Garrison fixture played last week will be transferred to the end of the schedule. Draw for the opening matches follows:

OCTOBER 29
Victoria West vs. Victoria City.
Bullen Park; referee, Mackay.
Rangers vs. Garrison, Hampton Road Park; referee, Obe.

Equimait, Spanish Thistles, byes. First mentioned is the home team. Games commence at 3 o'clock.

With a view to stimulating interest in the game, the league decided to have students from one school in Greater Victoria as guests each Saturday at Royal Athletic Park.

CHAPTER XXVI

Fenn and Bascom were baffled. They had reached the conclusion that a postmortem was distinctly indicated.

"It is undoubtedly cerebral thrombosis," the Examiner pronounced. "but how can it be that, when the man is so relaxed and in a natural position?"

Doctor Bascom sighed. He had expected this great authority would state at once the cause of Madison's death, and would explain its mysterious aspects. Instead of that, Doctor Fenn seemed to know no more than the village G.P.

"Who came in here and saw him dead first?" he asked.

"Elkanah," he's a sort of steward, and while he was Mr. Madison's valet, he was a lot of other things besides."

"Can we have him up here?"

"Of course," and Doctor Bascom opened the door to the hall, Elkanah sat on a hall chair, waiting to be summoned.

"Come in here, Garson," the doctor said, and the man obeyed.

The assistant medical examiner looked at him and said:

"You're the one who first discovered that Mr. Madison was dead?"

Tell me the circumstances."

"Well, sir, every morning, Wilkins, he's the butler, took Mr. Madison some hot coffee at eight o'clock. That wasn't his breakfast; it was just a sort of bracer."

"And when Wilkins brought the tray, what happened?"

"Why, nothing. Mr. Madison always looked his hall door as soon as he got in his room. He had a fear of burglars. His winder, as you see, sir, all have those patent gadgets that let you leave 'em some open, and yet a burglar couldn't squeeze through."

"Then how does the butler get in with the tray of a morning?"

"Mr. Madison was always awake early, sir. He'd hop outen 'bed and unlock the door and hop back again. Wilkins would just walk in and put the coffee on a little table by the bed, and Mr. Madison helped himself."

"And this morning, Mr. Madison hadn't unlocked the door; did he often forget?"

"No, sir. Mr. Madison never forgot. And he didn't forget it this morning, either—how could he, when he was dead?"

"What did Wilkins do?"

"He knocked, but soft like, 'cause he didn't want to disturb other folks a-sleeping. And when there wasn't no answer, he come downstairs a looking for me."

"What did you do?"

"Well, sir, there's no way to get into this room 'cept through that one door. That other door there goes into the bathroom. So I ups with a long ladder and looks in the window, and I see Mr. Madison lyin' in bed like he was asleep. But I know he ain't asleep. I sensed there was somethin' the matter 'cause I heard the door was locked. I was so sure I'd have to get in the winder I took some tools along with me up the ladder, and I cut out a ring-around of the glass and poked in my hand and turned the catch. Then o' course I clumb in the winder, and I found him."

"What did you do then?"

"I called Hetty, that's my wife, and I told her to go and tell Miss Madison about her brother. My wife's the housekeeper, but she and Miss Cornelia has always been friends like, and I knew Hetty could tell her gentle and respectful."

But the medical examiner had ceased to listen; he was looking about the room, and staring at the walls.

"I say, Doctor Bascom, would you be willing for Fleming Stone to come up here—now?"

"Why, of course, Doctor Fenn," Bascom replied, but he was not enthusiastic. He had hoped to acquire merit by working with the examiner, but he hadn't acquired any, noticeably. And now, if the great detective came into the investigation, he, Bascom, was not likely to attain any special prominence.

Doctor Fenn was telling Elkanah to go down and bring Mr. Stone up for consultation, if he would be kind enough to come.

The errand was successful, and Stone came in, whereupon Fenn dismissed Elkanah, and closed the door.

"Take a look at him," Fenn said, nodding toward the bed, and Stone obeyed.

"Have you come to a decision?" he asked.

"We have come to a decision that we can't come to a decision, without an autopsy," Fenn told him. "There is nothing to give us any hint as to the cause of death. But before we take him away, I wanted to call your attention to this room. I should say it is what you detectives call 'a hermetically sealed' room. I mean, when Mr. Madison came in, and locked the door that leads into the hall, there was no possibility of entrance by anyone else. This doesn't matter, since we have no reason to think any ill-intentioned person did intrude."

"No way in?" said Stone, musingly.

"There are five doors. May I open them?"

Young Man Killed In Vehicle Crash

Wendel McRorie, twenty-one-year-old son of Penticton parents, was killed at 6:15 a.m. yesterday on the highway immediately south of that town, as a result of a collision between a delivery van and a heavy truck. Details of the fatality were under investigation by headquarters of the Provincial Police. Vehicles driven by McRorie and Kenneth Johnson were said to have "collided at a sharp bend in the road."

Seas Prevent Efforts of Provincial Police to Locate Missing Fishpacker

CAMPBELL River, B.C., Oct. 23 (P).—Heavy seas today hampered a search for the missing fishpacker, Carlisle No. 4, which is believed to have foundered in Georgia Strait off Cape Mudge, last week, with three men aboard.

Constable M. N. McAlpine, of the British Columbia Police detachment here, who reported seeing an oil patch on the water near the Cape, said he doesn't hold much hope of finding Captain J. C. Sparling, Peter Moore and W. Morrison alive.

"A buoy was placed on the spot where we found the oil spot yesterday, but was blown away in a strong westerly gale," Constable McAlpine said.

"Constable McAlpine's view was shared by C. B. Shannon, owner of the vessel, who arrived in Vancouver today and said he also thinks the boat sank in seventy fathoms of water about a mile from the Cape."

The missing vessel, owned by Shannon but operated under charter to the Canadian Fishing Company, was last seen off the Cape last Thursday, apparently in trouble while battling a forty-mile wind.

First word that the Carlisle may have run into trouble was received when Captain B. Akerman reported he left Granite Bay with Captain Sparling on Thursday night for Vancouver, but lost sight of the latter's boat off Cape Mudge when a gale came up.

HEAVY TONNAGE THROUGH CANAL

Movement of Lumber and General Cargo Highest Since 1936

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 23 (P).—Movement of Pacific Coast lumber to Atlantic ports in recent months has been setting new high marks for some years.

Tonnage moved through the Panama Canal set a new high for the year in August, with 177,619 tons checked through the big ditch.

In September the traffic held close to that level, totaling 171,234 tons.

Those big months gave the industry for the first three-quarters of this year its biggest volume in inter-coastal trade since 1931.

Lumber tonnage in that time was 1,270,191, or approximately 50 per cent more than the 861,620 tons moved in the 1938 period.

Traffic of all kinds originating on this coast and moving through the canal in the nine months was 3,612,740 long tons, nearly one-third more than the West shipped to the East by boat in 1938. The nine months' tonnage last year was 2,737,825.

This movement was greater than any seen since 1936.

Endurance Flyers Forced to Land When Motor Trouble Developed Yesterday Afternoon

MUNCIE

MUNCIE, Ind., Oct. 23 (P).—Robert McDunn, twenty-five, of Muncie, and Kevin F. Baser, twenty-three, of Richmond, landed their light monoplane at 4:38 p.m. P.S.T. today after remaining aloft for 535 hours and 45 minutes in an assault on the world's endurance flying record.

The endurance flyers had piloted their plane in great circles over Municipal Airport since 8:53 a.m. P.S.T., October 1, in their second attempt to break the 343-hour record established by Hunter and Humphrey Morley at Springfield, Ill., this summer.

The light craft developed motor trouble shortly after noon today, after the flyers had encountered refueling difficulty on Sunday because of a high wind.

LIVERPOOL, Oct. 23 (P).—The submarine Thetis rose to the surface today and floated on an even keel about a mile offshore for the first time since her disastrous plunge in Liverpool Bay last June 1, in which ninety-nine died.

The craft was towed farther inshore for beaching at Traeth Bychan, where a thorough examination will be made to determine cause of the disaster.

The thirty-four bodies still in the hull will be removed after beaching operations have been completed.

WILL DEMOLISH Y.W.C.A. ANNEX

Building Was Erected Here in 1898 British Columbia Protestant Orphans' Home

A permit for $100 was issued at the building inspector's office at the City Hall, yesterday morning, for the demolition of the annex building of the Y.M.C.A. Courtenay street, one of the city's earlier structures, which was erected in 1898 as the first British Columbia Protestant Orphans' Home here.

The building was taken over by the Y.W.C.A. when the new orphanage was opened on Hillside Avenue, and the association operated it as the main house until the new Y.W.C.A. building on Bannard Street was opened. The wooden building then became the annex, where the older women stayed.
